In a now-classic study (1959), social psychologists John R. P. French and Bertram Raven developed a schema of sources of power by which to analyse how power plays work (or fail to work) in a specific relationship. According to French and Raven, power must be distinguished from influence in the following way: power is that state of affairs which holds in a given ... Ever since then, we've kept listening to our readers and students. In this latest ... This is literally a "primer" for all things special forces and for setting the basic framework of an SF soldier (or combat arms soldier in many ways). It goes out to address not just the tactics and procedures of leading small unit patrols (the foundation of all things SOF) but goes beyond it to address the whole-man concept. Both addressing doctrinal knowledge requirements of the SF ...
